Apology

A very embarrassed woman apologized to her pastor because her husband had gotten up and left the sanctuary during the sermon. "My husband didn't leave because he disagreed with your sermon," she said. "Actually, he's been walking in his sleep since he was a child"

Building Project
Pew Fund

The church building project is well underway. As a future phase to this project, the pews in the auditorium will need to be replaced. It was decided that a pew fund would be established for anyone wanting to purchase or give toward a pew purchase. If you are interested in making a gift, you can mark pew fund on an offering envelope or see Joyce for more information.
